The meat strike has caused an advance of four cents in eggs in the large cities.

One Sam Jones died at Toledo Ohio last week, but there are others of the name.

Hopkinsville now has a Dr. Ketchum and a Dr. Cheatham, but puns on their names have long since been barred by limitation.

The jury in the case of Miss Mollie Miller against Estill D. Berry, at Owensboro, for breach of promise, awarded the plaintiff $125. She sued for $5,000.

After all Taggart may not be Chairman of the National Committee. Nominee Davis wants his cousin, Senator Gorman, and Judge Parker has not yet expressed a preference.

Miss Hallie Erminie Rives' new book, "The Castaway," in which Lord Byron is a leading character, is now out. Miss Rives, who has been in Rome for several months, is now in Venice, where her book is being translated into Italian.

Walter Wellman, who went to St. Louis to belittle and ridicule Bryan as a back number, wound up by agreeing with August Belmont, who heard him speak for the first time and said, "The man is a giant. His power over men can be explained in no other way."

"It is 'officially denied'" from Tokio that any fight took place at Port Arthur at the time the Japs were reported to have lost 30,000 men. The war correspondents on both sides are doing all they can to manufacture news when there is nothing to relate.

The body of F. Kent Loomis, of Parkersburg, W. Va., who disappeared from the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II. as that vessel was nearing Plymouth, England, on June 20, was found Saturday at Warren Point, fifteen miles from Plymouth. There are no indications of foul play. An inquest will be held.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Halls Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

"Oom" Paul Kruger, old the Boer leader, who died last week in exile in Switzerland, was 79 years old and one of the noted men of his generation. Stephenus Johannes Paulus Kruger, the last president of the Boer republic, was one of the empire builders of South Africa and the lifelong enemy of Cecil Rhodes. For twenty-five years Kruger thwarted the ambition of Cecil Rhodes and delayed the march of the British empire from Cape Colony north toward the equator. He lived long enough, says the Chicago Tribune, to see the death of his greatest enemy and to witness, in lonely exile, the triumph of the greatest foe of his people. In his life he was one of the world's rugged, heroic figures. In his death he was still a world figure, pathetic in his loneliness, an exile by his own choice.

Hon. Lewis McQuown, of Bowling Green, has published in the papers a complete and thoroughly convincing reply to the recent article published in McClure's Magazine for March on the conviction of Caleb Powers. The article was a defense of the assassin written by a man named Adams. Judge McQuown's reply was sent to McClure, but he refused to allow the libel on the State and people of Kentucky to be corrected, or to publish the facts in regard to the assassination of Gov. Goebel by the conspirators, of whom Powers and Taylor were the leaders. The article as it appears in the Courier Journal is of great historical value. No man in Kentucky is more familiar with the facts than Judge McQuown, who was in Frankfort during the "reign of Taylor" and speaks from his own knowledge of conditions leading up to the murder.

A writer in the Louisville Post says the first white child born in Kentucky was Isaac Goodnight, who was born Jan. 1, 1776, at Harrodsburg. He was a posthumous child, his father, Michael Goodnight, having been killed by Indians four months before, at the age of 100 years. Isaac was the youngest of a family of 22 children. Isaac Goodnight died in Warren county Oct. 14, 1869, nearly 84 years old. He was married four times and was the father of 17 children. Many of his descendants still live in Kentucky.

Peace negotiations in the packing house strike are practically at a standstill, owing to the inability of the contending factions to arrive at a basis of operation. The strikers demand the restoration of all strikers to their old places, but the packers refuse to turn off those who are filling their places, but are willing to make concessions asked for and employ such of the old men as they need. The Chicago plants are operating in a small way.

Do You Know Time Qui Vive.

Probably you do, for Mme. Qui Vive has a national reputation as an aspiring friend of every woman with a beauty woe. Her "Woman Beautiful" department in the daily and Sunday issues of The Chicago Record Herald is a perennial source of joyous helpfulness to womanhood. Her instructions on complexion ills are interlarded here and there with snappy little epigrams as "cheerers." The weapons she suggests to beauty seekers for the complete annihilation of beauty grievances do not include artificial methods—"factory" frizzes, rouge and other horrors being barred. She gives instructions on correct breathing, what to eat, how to bathe—in brief, how to become a healthy, wholesome woman. No wonder she is popularly known to many thousands of women.

Sturgis, Ky., July 15.—Bud Cox, a young negro married man, was found in the Ohio river at Caseyville with a rope around his neck and several bullet holes in his head and body. Cox and his wife had been having trouble. It is supposed he was mobbed and the body thrown into the river.

DESERVED PROMOTION.

For Popular Young Railroader
Who Has Risen Rapidly.

Mr. Wible L. Mapother was on Saturday appointed assistant to the president of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, to take effect at once, says the Courier Journal. Milton H. Smith issued a circular, which was sent to all the officers of the roads and its connections, notifying them of the resignation of Mr. Walker D. Hines, which was handed in the latter part of June. The circular further advises that matters heretofore referred to the office of the first vice president shall be referred to the office of the president. Mr. Mapother's new duties will be to assist the president in his work, with the added cares of first vice president.

The force of the appointment of Mr. Mapother is practically that he will become the first vice president of the road. The election of a first vice president will be postponed indefinitely, and Mr. Mapother's fitness for the place will be thoroughly tested by the duties which fall upon him. He has been since May 1, 1902, the chief clerk to the president and the first vice president, and his duties in that place have given him the experience which is needed in taking the new responsibilities attached to the office of assistant to the president.

Mr. Mapother, who received the compliment as well as the substantial reward of the appointment, is a Louisville boy, and is now about thirty years of age. He has lived in Louisville all his life, and received his education in the schools of this city. After finishing school he accepted a place in the office of the Secretary of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, where he remained some time. Afterwards he was transferred to the president's office, and has filled every place up to the one to which he was appointed Saturday.

GOV. GOEBEL'S FRIEND.

Beasley Thompson, Colored, Waiter,
Dies at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., July 15.—Beasley Thompson, colored, a noted waiter at the Capitol Hotel for twenty years, who waited on Gov. Goebel at the Capitol during his twelve years of public service, and was a great friend of Judge W. S. Pryor, and was known by many public men stopping at this famous hotel for the past twenty years, died this morning.

Gov. Goebel defended Thompson's brother without a fee in a criminal prosecution, owing to his friendship for Beasley, and his brother was acquitted. Although a strong Republican Beasley voted for Goebel and was proud of his vote, saying it was the only Democratic vote he ever cast.

Associated With Dr. Young.

I have associated with me in the practice of medicine Dr. W. H. Ketchum of Lisbon, Ohio, and a graduate of Cleveland Homeopathic College. Dr. Ketchum brings to me high recommendations from mutual friends both as to character and professional ability. I feel that I can endorse him to the community as worthy of confidence, both as a man and a physician.

James A. Young.

Nothing But Health.

The bulletin issued by the health department yesterday showed that for the last four weeks there have been 1,566 deaths in Chicago, a weekly average of 392. There are in round numbers 400 undertakers and 3,600 physicians. It is estimated by experts that for every death there are twenty cases of sickness. The arithmetical conclusion follows that the undertakers have not had a funeral each a week during the last month, while the doctors have averaged a little over two patients each.—Chicago Record Herald.

DIETRICH FAMILY

Will Hold Reunion at Kutztown,
Pa., August 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Dietrich, of this city, will attend a reunion of the Dietrich family at Kutztown, Pa., Aug. 13. The details of the reunion are given in the following extract from a Pennsylvania paper:

The Dietrich Family Reunion.

The Dietrich family will hold its reunion this year on Saturday, Aug. 13, at Kutztown, Pa. All the Dietrichs, the name is variously spelled, and relatives through inter-marriage, are requested to be present. More than four hundred Dietrichs assembled at Lehighville, Pa., last year and formed a permanent organization for the purpose of collecting information for a family history. The following officers were elected: Lawson G. Dietrich, Esq., Moselum Springs, president; William J. Dietrich, 1136 Chestnut street, Reading, secretary; Daniel F. Dietrich, 323 Penn street, Reading, treasurer.

During the past year the association collected considerable data. The secretary has nearly complete records of the ancestry of Johannes, Adam, John Ludwig, Elias, Conrad and John Jacob Dietrich. Each of these immigrants landed at Philadelphia before the Revolutionary war, in which a number of them did valuable service.

Johann Christian Dietrich, who landed in New York in the year 1710, is the first immigrant of whom the association has any record. Johannes Dietrich was the first immigrant to land at Philadelphia in 1731. The Pennsylvania archives give the names of 54 other Dietrichs who landed at the same port up to 1805.

The association also has considerable history of the ancestry in Germany. The Dietrich is an old family. It is mentioned in the annals of the German Empire since the time of the Great Dietrich Von Bern, 454-526, A. D., who was the King of the Ostrogoths.

The Association acquired a copy and explanation of the family coat-of-arms, which is of pretty German design in the following colors: Purple, gold, silver, red, green and black. The officers have arranged with the Keystone Badge Co., of Reading, for the reproduction of the family coat-of-arms in its exact design and colors in the form of a souvenir badge, consisting of a gilt bar and ribbon, with suitable inscription, the coat of arms being reproduced on celluloid medallion, one and one-half inches in diameter, surrounded by a neat gilt rim. A badge will be presented to each Dietrich who attends the reunion. The Dietrichs are numerous throughout the country. This meeting or picnic will be exceedingly interesting. It will give one the opportunity to see and meet more Dietrichs than they ever met before. Members of the family will make addresses and a band will furnish music. The exercises will begin at 9:30 o'clock, a. m., and continue during the day. From information of Dietrichs from many states, the reunion will be largely attended.

DR. FURNISH RESIGNS.

As Superintendent of the Lakeland Asylum.

Frankfort, Ky., July 15.—Over the protest of Gov. Beckham Dr. J. G. Furnish has resigned as superintendent of the Lakeland Asylum, his resignation to take effect August 1. The resignation was filed with Gov. Beckham March 30, and after a conference Dr. Furnish agreed to continue in office until time could be given the Governor to cast about and select a suitable person to fill the place. Dr. Furnish wrote the Governor July 12 asking that his resignation take effect August 1. Gov. Beckham has made a selection, but will not announce his appointment for some days yet.

Dr. Furnish resigns for business reasons. He has made a most excellent officer, and the Governor wrote a letter expressing the highest regard for Dr. Furnish, both as a man and officer, and expressing his regret that he was to sever his official relations.

Yeaman Tipped For the Place

Louisville, Ky., July 16.—Dr. M. H. Yeaman, of Henderson, is tipped to succeed Dr. J. G. Furnish as superintendent of the Central asylum for the insane at Lakeland.
